JAMESTOWN HAS GALA DAY

CROWD OF MORE THAN 5,000 GATHERS AT THE VIRGINIA COURSE.

Aviation Exhibition Attracts Many First-Time Visitors, Who Evince Keen Interest in Thoroughbred Contests-Odd Outcome in Steeplechase

Norfolk, Va., November 10.—The management of the Jamestown Jockey Club, as an inducement to draw out a crowd, arranged with aviator Mars to give an exhibition with his biplane at the Jamestown track this afternoon. More than 5,000 persons gathered at the course, many of whom were making their first visit to the races. A good card had been provided and as a majority of the races furnished keen coatests, the public was well satisfied with the afternoon's entertainment. Those who were inclined to speculate reaped rich rewards, as four of those rare happenings in racing occurred, in the steeplechase. There were six starters and at the first jump Francis Joseph refused and unseated his rider. At the next jump the other five fell. Bergoo tried to refuse to take the jump, but Allen whipped him to it and he fell. Expansionist tumbled over bim and the rest went down in a heap. The stable bands ran after the rideress horses and all but Essex II. were finally corralled and remounted, and in a driving finish Expansionist won by the shortest of heads from Prince, with Shove third, a scant length away. Ned Henderson, who had the mount on Essex II., was the only rider that suffered injury. A broken collarbone was the result of his fall. E. Heider was badly shaken up, but gamely remounted Expansionist and finished the race. When he pulled up he was wobbling in the saddle and some one caught the horse and led him back to the judges' stand. Heider then collapsed and was lifted out of the saddle and assisted to the scales, On examination it was found that one of the borses had jumped on him and that ais side was panies as has been witnessed on a race track in some time.

The feature race, which was a six-furlongs dash, unished a stirring contest, in which Montealm and J. H. Houghton finished so close together that be winner was in doubt until the official placing as displayed.

The fifth race was a peculiarly run affair. There ere seven starters and all but Sebastian showed in forward position at some stage of the running, in the final drive Aunt Kate drew away to win by length from the 60 to 1 chance. Sebastian.

Capt. Fred Presgrave was a visitor to the course widay.

Bookmaker E. J. Ryan came over from New York and will probably join the ranks of the layers tomorrow.

S. Tyree has announced his retirement from ing and all of the horses that he is racing here be sold in the paddock next week.

CHRISTMAS DAISY'S SECOND CAMBRIDGESHIRE

London, Eng., October 29.—The Cambridgeshire did not yield the hoped-for American triumph, and although Whisk Broom ran an excellent race it turned out that his hot favoritism at 3 to 1 was undescreed. It was a repetition of last year's Cambridgeshire, Christmas Daisy again winning every yard of the way and unlucky Mustapha again bringing up in second place. That both first and second horses should repeat in successive years was without precedent in the history of the race, but Hackler's Pride, hailing from the same stable that has now triumphed twice with Christmas Daisy, won the big race in 1903 and repeated in 1904, different horses finishing second. This year's Cambridgeshire was a fast-run race which soon separated the wheat from the chaff—in fact, the pace set by the winner was of so cutting-down a character that few could live up to it. One of these was Whisk Broom, which was second at the Bushes, but Newmarket's hope could not live it out, and Maher on Mustapha showed that the confidence of Dawson's stable in reducing its representatives to a single one must have been very strong; but again did Lord Carnaryon's horse have to put up with second place. But Christmas Daisy never left the result in doubt from start to finish, making all the running, and Donoghue was able to take a judicious casy coming down Bushes Hill. where he got rid of Whisk Broom, and was enabled to beat Mustapha, with a renewed burst off speed, by a length and a half, Haleyon ran in his usual game fashion and finished a neck in front of Whisk Broom, which just missed a place. Twenty-one horses ran, but most of them were hopelessly outpaced throughout.

As compared with the Newmarket Second October Second Set of the Service of secting the Americans cut but little figure at the Newmarket Houghton meeting, their only success of importance being the triumph of Mr. Belimon's fleet and shapely filly few horses from the American stables started. In contrast to their usual practice of racing frequently at Newmarket.

St. Nat, in showing his a

Nuage, the winner of the Grand Prix de Paris Nuage, the winner of the Grand Prix de Paris and other races, has been sold for $60,000 to Count Leindorff. who was acting on behalf of the German Sovernment, and the horse goes into the Royal Graditz Stud.

A subject for discussion likely to crop up during the dull months of the coming winter will be the respective and contrasted merits of Scaforth and St. Nat. Each has lost a race, and to the credit of the latter six are set down, while the former has won four. A good many people will maintain that they are superior to their rival two-year-olds.

D. Maher has promised to ride Danilo II. in next year's Austrian Derby. Danilo II. is the colt on which the crack American horseman won the Austria Prize last Sunday.

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING OWNERS OF 1910

R. F. Carman's successes at Latonia have enabled him to wrest third place in the list of American money-winning owners of 1910 from James R. Keene since the last publication of the list. As Mr. Keen now has no horses in training there will be no further change in the relative standing of the four leader caless Mr. Carman should be able to displace R. T. Wilson, Jr., from second position before the Carman racers go into winter quarters, which seems unlikely. Everett's success in the Bowie Handicap had the effect of restoring the Quincy Stable to a place in the list of the thirty leaders, which is as follows up to and including the racing of Wednesday:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

said that the Jamestown meeting will show

Woodford Clay, who has been ill at his home in Kentucky, is reported to be convalescent. The Stinger-Touch Me match, which it was proposed to hold at Jamestown, has been declared off. Forrest Rose will resume negotiations with Barney Schreiber for the purchase of Jack Atkin it is said.

Dr. G. M. Miller plans to retire his good Cesarion colt, Sidney R., for the winter at the close of the Latonia meeting.

San Francisco, Cal., November 10.—Some of the candidates for the Opening Haudicap at Oakland Saturday were given final work today. Bubbling Water, in company with Eddie Graney, went a half mile in 47%, and is a sure starter. Spellbound worked seven-eighths in 1:28, with the boy pulling up toward the finish. Special Delivery, one of the eligibles, was sold after the publication of weights to H. M. Mason, trainer of the Denver Stable. He acted for Edward Gaylord and paid $1,000 for that greatly improved racer, which is a likely starter. Fredonia will also start and jockey Kederis has been engaged to ride her.

Charles Quinn arranged with James McManus last night to have the services of G. Archibald to ride Sea Cliff. Thinking that jockey Shilling may not service here in time for the opening day, Al Farrar, trainer of Bubbling Water, was also seeking to secure Archibald's services.

Twelve horses owned by Earl Linnell will arrive tonight from Saratoga.

Jockey Eddie Dugan wrote his brother that he will arrive next week from Jamestown.

Chuny, Chantilly and other good racers owned by Charles W. Clark of El Palomar Stable were brought from Mr. Clark's San Mateo Farm today.

The Raisin City Stable's string came from Fresno. The lot consists of Likely Dieudonne, L. C. Ackerley, Bucolie, Jack Roberts and Goldwick.

OCEAN BOUND FINALLY WINS

WOODFORD CLAY'S GOOD FILLY SCORES IN THE CRITERION STAKES.

Rain Falls at Latonia, but Track Remains in Go

Condition-Unfavorable Weather Affects Patronage.

Cincinnati, O., November 10.—Cool, threatening weather prevailed again this afternoon at Latonia, detracted from the enjoyment of the sport and reduced the attendance. During the early hours of the day showers caused the track to become slow, but constant work over it with the harrows put it in fairly good shape by post time. Under favorable conditions this would have ranked with the best days at the course, as the sterling card gave promise of splendid sport. The offering was topped off by the Criterion Stakes at three-quarters, which engaged six of the best racers at the track, including Jack Atkin, Ocean Bound, Cherryola, Mary Davis and Prince Gal.

The mile and a sixteenth handicap served as a good secondary feature and had among its starters some horses of good class. Both these events were won by the favorites, Ocean Bound accounting for the stake and Fauntleroy for the landicap. Both scored their initial success of the season on Kentucky tracks. Ocean Bound had been a frequent contender in races, but Fauntleroy had only been seen once before under colors in these parts. Jack Atkin, showing his customary speed, went out to force a fast pace, but after going half a mile, became of the success of the season on Kentucky tracks. Ocean Bound had been a frequent contender in races, but Fauntleroy had only been seen once before under colors in these parts. Jack Atkin, showing his customary speed, went out to force a fast pace, but after going half a mile, began boring out and was lucky to last for third place. Milton B. was troublesome from the outset and only succumbed to Ocean Bound in the last stride. Prince Gal sulked nearly the entire trip and Cherryola found the distance a trifle short.

R. F. Carman lost a pair of purses this afternoon because of poor riding. His recent eastern importation, Gross, was responsible for the failure of Naughty Lad in the opener and Question Mark in the chosing dash. In both instances Gross showed himself weak when it came to the finish, Goose and J. Deavenport outriding him.

Fla.

Lon Johnson is trying to purchase Fred Essen from Barney Schreiber.

Both combinations today were won by the field backers. Had anyone selected the winner of either combination it would have netted the lucky one a bandsone return.

KEEN RACING INTEREST AT JACKSONVILLE.

colt, Sidney R., for the winter at the close of the Latonia meeting.

Hanbridge probably will be marted with some of the marcs owned by William Gerst before he is put in training next spring.

Arthur B. Rouse, former secretary of the Kentucky Tate Racing Commission, was among the congressmen elected from Kentucky Tuesday.

Ossian, owned by Mrs. E. Hostetter, won the Mississipi Derby run in connection with the state fair at Jackson last week. The race was worth about 7600. San Gil was second and Sam Bernard third.

Trainer George M. Odom has succeeded in healing the wound Folile Levy received in her last start at Louisville and now thinks he has a chance to get the speedy filly to the post before the Latonia meeting closes.

At the Newmarket Houghton meeting October 25 D. Maher won four of the seven races, taking the Trial Plate with Double Thrush, a plate with Persuade, the Rutland Handicap with Admiral Togot III. and the Criterion Stakes with Sandwich. He was unplaced on his other two mounts of the day.

An improved starting barrier is being tried on Australian race courses. If requires only a single at half for use in an actual race. The barrier, like the numbered saddle cloth, came to America, from Australian. The big tracks in that country did not originate these convenient accessories of present-day racing, but adopted them from the pony and galloway meetings.

FINAL WORK FOR OAKLAND OPENING.

San Francisco, Cal., November 10.—Some of the candidates for the Opening Haudicap at Oakland Saturday were given final work today. The largest nominator is J. W. Schorr, who will be well represented in every stake.

Gallaher Bros.' string reached Moncreif Park from Lexington in fine condition. Ozana. King Soloman, Toison d'Or and Whim were included in the shipment.

LYMAN DAVIS IN POOR HEALTH.

El Paso. Tex., November 10.—Secretary Lyman Davis, who has not been in the best of health since his arrival here from Kentucky, acting on the advice of Manager Winn, returned to his home at Covington today to rest and recuperate for the coming season. He expects to return by December 1, and in the interim his duties will be ably looked after by Colonel Winn, Judge W. H. Shelley and assistant secretary Ed Jasper, who arrived today. Among the list of nominations for the different stakes appear the names of such noted performers as Jack Atkin. Round the world. Cherryola, Helmet, Glorio, The Hague and others equally prominent.

OLD-TIME JOCKEY REACHES SEVENTY.

Cincinnati, O., November 10.—George Cadwallader, old-time jockey, trainer and horse owner, celebrated his seventieth birthday the other day and is still hale and hearty. It will soon be forty years since he won the Phoenix Hotel Stakes at Lexington with Mollie Cad, and he is probably the only survivor of the Jockeys who rode over the famous Buckeye course, which was the first running race track around Cincinnati. For many years he owned some horses in partnership, with Anderson Waddell of Louisville and was in a measure associated with that noted sportsman when the latter died several years ago. The last horse Mr. Cadwallader raced was Mamie English, a half-sister to English Lad.

RECOLLECTIONS OF A FAMOUS RACE.

In a recent issue of the Nashville Banner, of Nashville. Tenn., there appeared from the pen of B. Frank Moore, of Harrodsburg, Ky., as interesting account of the great race run by Leconte' and Lexington, famous four-milers, at New Orleans in 1854. The article is written from the standpoint of an eye-witness, and is as follows:

"I was born and reared on a sugar plantation in Louisiana, one hundred miles above New Orleans, on the Mississippi River. On the evening of March 30, 1854, quite a number of planters, up and down the river, gathered at my father's home to take the Bayou Sara and New Orleans packet steamer. J. A. Cotton, for New Orleans, to attend and witness that race on April 1, 1854. Owing to a violent rain and wind storm, blowing the chimneys off and otherwise disabiling the stramboat, we did not reach New Orleans until the morning of the race day.

"When we entered the office room of the St. Charles Hotel my father stumbled against W. J. Minor, to whose plantation, twelve miles below my fathers, it is not not not state that been sent by his owner, Col. Jeff Wells, to become accustomed to the water and climate, and for full training on W. J. Minor's track.

"When my father took Minor to one side to have a little horse talk, he asked him about a reported sensational four-mile trial run Lecomte had made on his track only a few days before. Minor smiled and said: "Moore, Lecomte did make a little run the other day, but secrecy is enjoined upon me, and I cannot speak of it: but I will say this much, that if it was a dry, good track today every dollar I could command, negroes, plantation and everything on earth I possess would go on that horse beating any horse in the world that could be pitted against him."

"The track, however, is very heavy and stiff, in mud, and Lexington coming down here as a noted find horse, I would not risk one cent on Lecomte. That track so the centres result of the race proved. Well, now for the entries result of the race proved. Well, now for the entries result of the race proved. Well, now for the entries result of the race proved. Well, now for the entries result of the race proved. Well, now for the entries result of the race proved. Well, now for the entries result of the race proved. Well, now for the entries result of the race proved. Well, now for the entries result of the race proved. Well, now for the entries result of the race proved. Well, now for the entries result of the race proved. Well, now for the chirds from Mississippi. Arrow, from Louislana, and Highlander, from Alabama.

"Lecomte was born and reared near Alexandria, Rapides Parish, La., and was entered from that state at first, but owing to the celebrated Virginia horse, Planet, being unable to reach New Orleans in time. Le as if every man, woman and child in the city had turned out.

"I shall ever remember my sad experience of the cay. I met in the St. Charles Hotel early that morning an old Kentucky horse and mule trader friend, who told me he had in a nearby livery stable some fife saddle horses, and if I would get some friends to join him we could have a more pleasant time than being crowded to death in the grandstand. I thought well of this suggestion, and soon had friends to join me. Soon after reaching the field we were surrounded by carriages, buses, buggies and every conceivable conveyance and our view of the horses and track was almost completely cut off.

"Only now and then could we catch a glimpse of the horses through the slight openings, and, what was worse still, we could not possibly escape from out enforced imprisonment until all was over and the vast crowd dispersed.

"My father was in the grandstand among the jubilating Kentuckians, and not only sacrificed comfort, but lost heavily in pocket, because his state pride caused him to meet the banters of those happy Kentuckians who were yelling out 3 to 1 on Lexington after the first heat. But all that fun and frolie was over for a time, and another like event was on the tapis.

"The following Saturday, April 8, another jockey ciub meeting at the Matarie race course began, and Lexington, Lecomite and Reube were the entries for the four-mile race for a purse of $2,000.

"The week preceding had been dry and balmy, characteristic of spring weather in Louisiana, and the track was in first-class order when the race was called.

"The three entries appeared in splendid form and condition, and while Lexington was the favorite in the betting, Lecome had plenty of backers. The start was made with Lecome in the lead, which he held to the finish. In the record-breaking time of '226, and leading Lexington six full lengths. Reube harely saved his distance, evidently being outclassed. The second heat was about as the first, Lecomte winning by four lengths from Lexington in 7:38%, a possible adjusted to the possible adjusted and the fastest mile horses for every mile in turn.

"Now what was the denouement of all this? Lecome was crowned champion of the American turf. and Dick Ten Broeck, recognizing this fact, bought and took him to England with Pryor and Pryoress in the spring of 1856, but the champion never again appeared on the turf. He took cold on the ocean steamer, which developed into pneumonia, of which he died shortly after reaching London. Lexington went stone blind at four and was sold to Alexander, of Woodford County, Kentucky, for $10,000, and put in the stud on his farm.

"Lecomte got his name from a rich planter living on Cane River, Natchitoches Parish, Louisiana, and the town or village of Lecomte was built up after this race, on the sugar plantation of Jeff Wells, which he previously called Lodi, sixteen miles from Alexandria. Wells wanted to bestow all the honors possible upon that invincible horse, hence the name Lecomte.

"All of the above is from my personal observation."

possible upon that invincible horse, hence the name Lecomte.

"All of the above is from my personal observation and recollection, which I trust will be of some in-terest. Sincerely,
